

I do not support NAB's petition 04-160 attempting to limit XM Radio's ability to provide local weather and traffic information. I am a recent subscriber to XM Satellite Radio and its variety of programming is a welcome change from the boring, repetitive programming currently offered on broadcast radio. I pay for these services and feel XM's satellite technology is certainly the future of radio. Content offerings should not be stifled as will occur under this petition.